★ Turn left at the large red barn. Follow the signs for visitor information to the Bear Valley Visitor Center. Please park in the lot across from the visitor center, near the Bear Valley Trailhead. Across from the parking lot is a paved road that goes up to the Morgan Horse Ranch, the Seashore Association building, and a private residence. Walk up the hill and follow the road to the right. The Seashore Association building, the large white house with the brick stairs, is on the left. The white house on the right is a private residence (please do not disturb the occupant). If necessary, you may drive up to the Association building to load/unload your gear. Cars must then be reparked at the bottom of the hill. If you have a disabled placard you may drive up the hill and park at the Morgan Horse Ranch in the handicap parking space.
